

Building Suicide-Safer Schools and Colleges

AN INTRODUCTION

Aarti Kumari

Overview of the guide

Postvention

Case Study

Bromley Beacon Academy

Larissa Sherman

Head of Therapy & Mental Health, London South East
Academies Trust

Case Study

Bromley Beacon Academy

Children who have difficulties with social communication have a higher risk of self-harm with suicidal intent by the age of 16 years
JAACP, 2018

Case Study

Bromley Beacon Academy

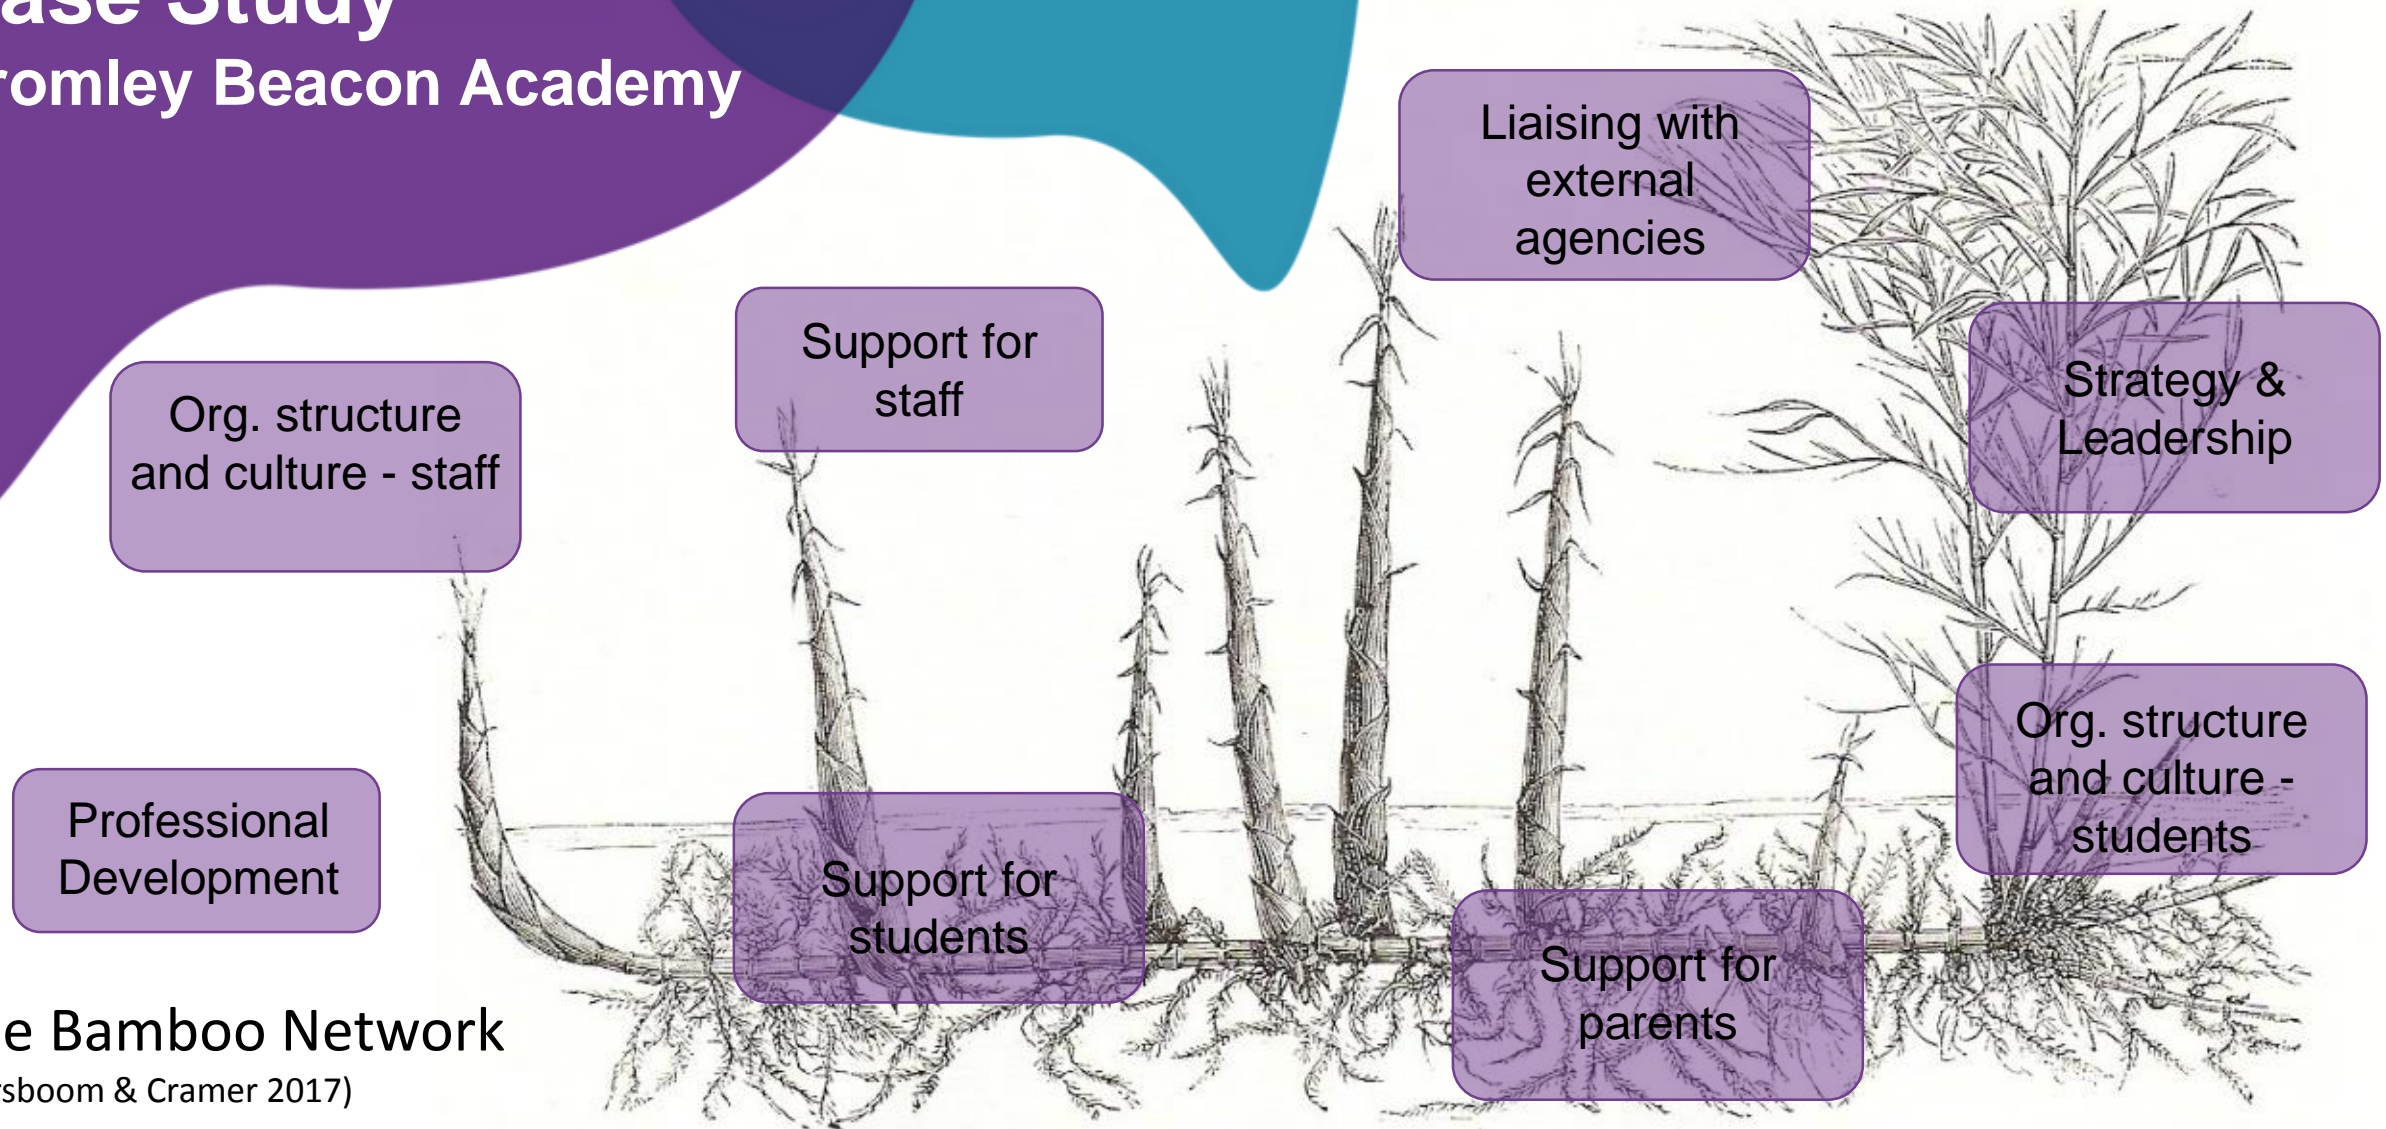

The Bamboo Network

(Borsboom & Cramer 2017)

Case Study

Bromley Beacon Academy

The Bamboo Network

(Borsboom & Cramer 2017)

Case Study

Bromley Beacon Academy

“I feel like I understand suicide prevention and can now put it into practice”

Case Study

Bromley Beacon Academy

“Really thought provoking
and helpful training”

Case Study

Bromley Beacon Academy

“Great knowledge by the facilitator that really encouraged debate”

Case Study

Bromley Beacon Academy

“The facilitator was well informed and very supportive”

Case Study

Bromley Beacon Academy

“The training was very insightful. Especially around the use of language and suicide”

Case Study

St Pauls School

Sam Madden

Director of Mental Health and Wellbeing and Deputy Safeguarding Lead

PAPYRUS

Prevention of Young Suicide

SUPPORT

EQUIP

INFLUENCE

PAPYRUS
PREVENTION OF YOUNG SUICIDE

PAPYRUS

Prevention of Young Suicide

Suicide is a major concern
in our communities

There is HOPE and HELP

You can help to
#SaveYoungLives

Thank You

#SaveYoungLives

Aarti Kumari

aarti.kumari@papyrus-uk.org

Stay Connected

