

Conference 2022:
Suicide prevention at the heart of the Covid recovery
 Thursday 27th January 2022, 10:00 to 16:00

Time	Session
10.00	Welcome Brian Dow and Jacqui Morrissey, Co-chairs, NSPA
10.10	Gillian Keegan MP Minister for Care and Mental Health
10.20	Plenary: Update on the National Strategy, including the impact and response to Covid Professor Louis Appleby, Chair, National Suicide Prevention Strategy Advisory Group
10.50	Plenary: How DHSC and OHID are driving suicide prevention in the recovery phase Gareth Owen, Lead for Suicide and Self-Harm Prevention, Department of Health and Social Care
11.10	Plenary: A Lived Experience Perspective Catherine McGill, NSPA Lived Experience Influencer
11.20	BREAK
11.40	Plenary: Valuing lived experience in suicide prevention Jessica Worner, Lived Experience Network Manager, NSPA Sandeep Saib, Emma Williams and Penny Phillips, NSPA Lived Experience Influencers
12.20	Workshops Exploring how we can make the internet a safer space for individuals experiencing self-harm and suicidal feelings, Samaritans First Hand: making sense of the memories and emotions following the suicide of someone you didn't know, Support After Suicide Partnership and Grassroots Suicide prevention in young people: Research and peer support, NW Counselling Hub Alcohol dependency and suicide: lived experience perspectives on barriers to support and 'what works', We Are With You and partners in the Suicide Prevention Consortium Compassionate, co-produced safety-planning: two examples of good practice, North East & North Cumbria Suicide Prevention Network and 4 Mental Health
1.00	LUNCH BREAK and Networking Online networking space will be provided

1.40	Welcome back from Chair Brian Dow, Co-chair of NSPA
1.45	Workshops Effective interventions for those who self-harm: a randomised control trial, Harmless Expansion and implementation of Real-Time Surveillance across London to incorporate self-harm and attempted suicide data, Thrive LDN A joined up and proactive approach to the prevention and awareness of the mental health and wellbeing challenges faced by workers across the construction industry, Mates in Mind Approaches to high risk locations, City of London Preventing and responding to student suicide in Further Education (FE) and Higher Education (HE) settings, Professor Jo Smith
2.30	BREAK
2.45	Plenary: Equality and diversity in suicide prevention Dr. Duleeka (Dee) Knipe, EBI Vice Chancellor's Research Fellow, Bristol Medical School Shilla Patel and Maxine Roper, NSPA Lived Experience Influencers In conversation: Poppy Jaman, CEO of City Mental Health Alliance and Julie Bentley, CEO of Samaritans
3.50	Closing comments Brian Dow and Jacqui Morrissey, Co-chairs, NSPA
4.00	Close and Networking (open until 4.30pm) Online networking space will be provided